

CASE NO. _____

THE STATE OF TEXAS

§ IN THE _____

v.

§
§ COURT OF FORT BEND COUNTY, TEXAS

§ SITTING AS A JUVENILE COURT

MOTION FOR LACK OF RESPONSIBILITY
TEXAS FAMILY CODE SEC. 55.20 & 55.51

- The Court, on its own motion,
- The State of Texas by and through an Assistant Fort Bend County District Attorney,
- The Attorney for the Juvenile,

has reason to believe Juvenile, as a result of mental illness or an intellectual disability lacked the capacity at the time of the conduct to appreciate the wrongfulness of the Juvenile's conduct or to conform the Juvenile's conduct to the requirements of the law. This motion is based on the Juvenile having:

- Intellectual Developmental Disability (IDD), e.g. intellectual/developmental delays, Autism, Down Syndrome, etc.
- Mental Health Diagnosis (Schizophrenia, Bipolar, ADHD, etc.)

Please indicate your specific concerns (Check all that apply):

- Disturbed perceptions and/or bizarre thoughts and beliefs about the offense*, e.g. talking to persons who are not present, or reports of hearing voices, belief that others are following him/her
- Difficulty conforming conduct to requirements of the law due to: _____

- Difficulty appreciating the wrongfulness of the act
 - Substance abuse history
 - Other:* _____

Required: (Check one)

- I have records regarding the Juvenile's history that are pertinent to the requested evaluation and I will make them available to the examiner.
- I do not have records available regarding the Juvenile's history.

Therefore,

- The State of Texas by and through an Assistant Fort Bend County District Attorney,
 - The Attorney for the Juvenile,
- prays that this Court will issue an order permitting a fitness to proceed examination by a disinterested mental health expert who can examine the Juvenile and report to the Court on the Juvenile's ability to proceed in juvenile court and testify as may be required to assist the Court in such a determination.

Respectfully submitted this the _____ day of _____, 20__.

Attorney for Juvenile/State of Texas
